Eifersbacher Waterfall

The 25 metre-high waterfall cascades into the valley. Experience the full effect of the falls from the top viewing point, and feel gentle splashes of water on your face. This is particularly refreshing on hot days. The hiking route starts and ends at the lti alpenhotel Kaiserfels. The last few metres leading to the waterfall are made easier with bridges and steps.

Alpine pastures tour on the Kitzbüheler Horn

This circular tour (7) combines two highlights: the Eifersbacher Waterfall, and part of the KAT long-distance route. Stop for a short rest on the Angerer Alm, which you will reach at about the halfway point, before returning to the hotel via the Schlosserbergsee lake.

KAT hiking trail, stages 5 + 6

The farms of Unterinntal, historic pastures, terrains from the ice ages, Alpine flowers, the best-known ski slope in the world, and a unique mountain panorama: – On 6 stages and across a distance of 76 kilometres, the KAT Walk is a route for ambitious and experienced hikers. Starting from the hotel, it is just a 10-minute walk from the end of stage 5 to the beginning of stage 6.

Kalkstein – Baumooskogel

After a 5 minute walk, you will reach Circular Route 9. This leads to Oberhofen, and from there a forest path will take you to the hamlet of Scheffau. Via the Baumooskogelalm (1,506 m) and the Leiteralp, you will reach Stockerhof, which invites you to rest in picturesque surroundings. Back in the valley, the route leads along the Grossache river to St. Johann in Tyrol, and back to the hotel.

Quality assurance thanks to the European Hiking Quality Mark

Having been awarded the European Hiking Quality Mark, the Iti alpenhotel Kaiserfels offers hikers a special experience, in the idyllic setting of the Wilder Kaiser mountains.

For over 12 years, the Quality Mark has guaranteed compliance with quality criteria in all aspects of hiking. The qualification process involves a precise analysis of the strengths/weaknesses of the hiking establishment, with specific instructions on how to improve its hiking programme. Only hotels which meet the strict quality standards will be awarded the European Hiking Quality Mark.

Qualification standards

Hiking hotels serve as a base camp, where holiday-makers start and end the day's adventures. Here, hikers can rest and regain their strength, ready for their next adventure in the midst of nature. For this reason, a welcoming and needs-oriented service programme especially for hikers is the foundation of an ideal hiking experience. The assessment criteria can be divided into four categories: Room, experience, information and service.

Obligatory criteria for meeting the quality standards:

- Max. 10 minutes on foot from the hiking trail network (0.5 – 1.0 km from the hotel)
- Certified hiking guide with years of experience
- A weekly hike led by the owners
- Guided hiking tour opportunities several times a week
- Information desk with hiking maps to borrow
- Daily tour tips
- Notice board with detailed hiking information
- Detailed information on their website about hiking
- Informative hotel brochure about hiking
- Multilingual hotel staff
- Hiking equipment hire (backpacks, trekking poles, thermos flasks)
- Hike starting point with signpost
- General overview of the hiking route network in the region
- Water basins for cleaning shoes (indoors and outdoors)
- Drying area for walking boots and clothing

Experience nature, preserve nature

The countryside of the Kitzbüheler Alps is an excellent natural panorama, which invites you to explore and discover. Explorers and athletes enjoy the natural landscape in their own way. So that everyone can enjoy what the area has to offer, please follow a few simple rules, namely:

1. Respect and preserve nature – do not drop any litter. Keep to the marked paths and trails. Do not enter any pastures or fields which do not have access paths.
2. Respect wild animals and livestock – Do not disturb animals by making too much noise. Remember to close pasture gates.
3. The right tour = more fun – Selecting the right tour according to your personal ability ensures an unforgettable hiking experience.
